Mayor's Message March 2022
By Liverpool Staff

The Mayor's Message is usually from the Mayor, however, with the passing of Mayor Strickland, this Mayor's Message is from the Liverpool Staff. The Staff was asked if they would like to write a little something about Mayor Strickland to be included and this is what they came up with.

MAYOR BILL STRICKLAND: Bill truly loved the Liverpool/Chocolate Bayou community, and he worked hard to give back to the community. He used to tell me that God put us here to help and love one another. He would help anyone that walked through the doors of city hall the best he could, and never ask for anything in return. I learned a lot from Bill, and I will truly miss him. I am thankful that I got the opportunity to work with and become friends with Bill. We are a family here at City Hall. - Catherine Long CCCII, Certified Court Clerk II, City Secretary

To me he wasn't just a Mayor, he was family. The residents of Liverpool weren't just people in a small town for the Mayor, they were like family. He never met a stranger and always went over the top to help in anyway. He would find a common ground to hold a conversation with even if he just met you. I'm going to miss him a lot. I'm going to miss the stories he told, conversations we had and seeing him and his dog Blue riding around everywhere. He would always encourage everyone in the office and had faith in each of us, most importantly he made it so easy to talk to him. I'm truly thankful for everything he has done and that I got the chance to meet him. - Kim Calhoun, Water Utility Clerk/Court Clerk

Bill was a man of many words. Many of which were encouraging ones. Bill believed that there was nothing you couldn't do if you wanted it bad enough. He was a kind and generous man who helped anyone in his life. Bill was always there to help and lend a hand. But boy don't make him mad because he had no problem letting you know. I can hear him say, "Now look here, if you just listen to us old timers you just might learn a thing or two." I will always be thankful that I was able to call Bill my Friend. - Rodney Garrett, Water Plant Manager

It saddens me to know that Mayor Strickland is no longer with us, but it brings me joy to know he will be remembered by those who loved and cared for him. Mayor Strickland always did his best to make sure everyone who works and lives in the City of Liverpool were taken care of. I will miss the small talks when we bumped into each other and the wave he gave me when he drove by. I will do my best to continue being a good officer and a good man for the City of Liverpool as he would have wanted. - Cas Perez, Patrol Officer

Bill was always kind and polite to me. He seemed to really love the community. - Sgt. Chris Enloe, Patrol Officer

At the last City Council meeting, it was suggested that the Liverpool pavilion be named after Mayor Strickland, and Council agreed, however, it will be officially voted on at the next City Council meeting.

"I watch my loved ones weep with sorrow, death's silent torment of no tomorrow. I feel their hearts breaking, I sense their despair, United in misery, the grief that they share. How do I show that, I am not gone... but the essence of life's everlasting song. Why do they weep? Why do they cry? I'm alive in the wind and I am soaring high. I am sparkling light dancing on streams, a moment of warmth in the rays of sunbeams. The coolness of rain as it falls on your face, the whisper of leaves as wind rushes with haste." Eternal Song, a requiem by Avian of Celeria

Mayor Strickland may be gone but will forever be remembered.

Our next City Council meeting is April 5, 2022, at 6:30 PM. Come join us.
